Who Is The Inventor?

Alex Maxwell came up with the Wealth DNA Code Program after thoroughly researching and studying human DNA and how to trigger these chakras in the DNA. After reaching successful results, he was determined to make this product and help people get more money.

Alex discovered that a typical human utilizes only 8% of their DNA while the other 92% is not under use correctly. He examines the items in your DNA and how the remaining 92% will help produce more wealth. He discovered that DNA chakras are vital and must be triggered. "When COVID hit, I became burnt out at my nursing job. I wanted a change but was clueless about what else I could do. Right around that period, I was introduced to the Wealth DNA Code. Well, as it turns out, I didn't need to be bothered about finances anymore! Out of nowhere, someone asked me to endorse a new nurse training program my friend had created. Now I sit at home and collect royalty checks for doing nothing! I was initially skeptical, but activating my wealth DNA has given me a life of freedom."
